on for Some Reason Watted 10 Days Freed as a Witness and Rearrested

"Pve More Evidence" Says McClusky. Tomasso Petto, one of the gang of Italians ted on the night of April 15 as a realt of the murder of Benedetto Madonia, was committed to the Tombs without bail the formal charge of having committed Petto was picked out as the slayer because of the identification yesterday morning of a watch for which Petto had the pawnticket as that which Madonia had when be left Buffalo. The identification was made by Madonia's stepson.

The watch was pawned on the day after the murder in the shop of D. Fry, at 276 owery, and although the police discovered the pawnticket in Petto's possession on the might he was arrested it apparently never urred to them to act on the ciue until

Then they discovered that it was like the watch which the murdered man's family said he had been carrying, and they sent for the stepson to come on here again from Buf-falo. He identified the watch positively at Police Headquarters yesterday morning and burst into tears when he saw it. The resuit was that Petto was released as a witness for the State from the House of Detention and immediately rearrested, this time charged with the murder.

Although the pawnbroker failed yesterday to recognize Petto, Inspector McClusky clared when Petto had been lodged in the Tombs that he considered the watch as clinching the evidence against the gang and fixing the actual murder on Petto. McClusky declared that he had additional evidence to strengthen his case, but that he would not make it known until the in-Petto has been known, the police say, be "the bull" because of his great strength. On the night that the gang was rounded up by the police and Secret Service men, Petto was found in company with Morello, the leader, at Forsyth and Delancey streets.

As one of the detectives started to arrest Morello, Petto drew a revolver, but McCafferty caught his arm. Then Petto tried to pull a knife with the other hand and the two fought, Petto slowly getting the better of McCafferty.

Finally the other detective jumped in. but it was only by knocking him down and beating him on the head that they finally got him to give in. He put up the hardest fight of all of the gang Pette was searched with the other prisoners that night at Headquarters and then the pawnticket was found along with a lot of others. It was numbered 27,696 and called for a hunting case, gold filled watch. The watch had been pawned for $1 and "John," and his address, "Elizabeth street.

When the body was discovered a watch chain but no watch was among the effects. Nevertheless, for reasons which the police were very anxious to explain yesterday, they put this ticket away as not worth they put this ticket away as not worth looking up.

Their attention at that time was riveted on Morello, as they admitted yesterday, and Petto was looked upon merely as a minor member of the gang.

The police had him held under $5,000 bail in the House of Detention with the others. From the start, however, Petto has failed to tell a straight story. He gave the police several addresses as his home, and at none of them was he known.

When the murdered man was identified and the stepson was brought on here the police asked him about the watch. He told them, according to the explanation which inspector McClusky had to make yesterday, that is was a solid gold watch, although at the same time he gave a description of it which, if the police looked up the pawnticket then, would have landed Petto although at the same time he gave a description of it which, if the pollee looked up the pawnicket then, would have landed Petto in the Tombs four days ago. As the ticket showed that the watch was a gold-filled one and had been pawned for only $1, they paid no further attention to the ticket, and Madonia's stepson went back to Buffalo.

On Friday the detectives, hard up for evidence, thought again of the watch and went to the pawnshop. It was found to correspond to the partial description the stepson had given. On the back of it was an engraving of a locomotive and on the stem were several scratches.

When the stepson returned from Buffalo yesterday he made an affidavit to the effect that the watch was one that his father had given him on Christmas, but which his father subsequently borrowed and which he carried when he left Buffalo.

Petto told 'he police that a friend named "John, whom he had known for three years, but whose last name he didn't remember, had given him the ticket to keep for him on the lith. Petto said that he had slept with the men that night at 326 South Sixth street, Williamsburg. The police found that there was no such number.

Petto scribing the discovery and identification of the watch.

Petto declares that he can prove an anticked describing the discovery and identification of the watch.

Petto declares that he can prove an anticked declares that he can prove an anticked that he had slept with the watch read the watch.

Petto declares that he can prove an anticked declares that he can prov made by McCafferty and the other by the stepson, describing the discovery and identification of the watch.

Petto declares that he can prove an alibi and can show he was with friends on the night of the murder. He has a wife and two children in Sicily. When arrested he described himself as a clothes-preser.

The Secret Service men say that he has been a member of the gang a long time and was with the others in the butcher shop on Stanton street where Madonia was last seen in their company.

Inspector McClusty asked Coroner Scholer yesterday to keep all the others in the House of Detention until the inquest. He said that his men had more evidence than that furnished by the watch.

"I consider, anyway, said the Inspector, that by the watch we have traced the murder directly to Petto."

HAHNEMANN'S BIRTHDAY.

Graduating Class of the New York Homeopathic College Celebrate It.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 26.—The gradu-sting class of the New York Homospathic Medical College celebrated the birthday of Hahnemann, founder of homospathy, to-day by accepting an invitation of Supt. M. C. Ashley to visit the State Hospital in this city. They were accompanied by Dr. William Morris Butler, professor of mental and nervous diseases, who succeeded the late Dr. S. H. Talcott, former superintendent of the Middletown Institution. During all the years of Dr. Talcott's identification with the conege raculty it has been his custom to entertain the graduating class on Hahnemann's birthday, and now Supt. Ashley, as a mark of respect to the dead allenist, proposes to continue the annual

New Symmer Hotel Company.

A syndicate has been formed for the purpose of "cornering" summer resort hotels in the belief that conducting a chain of hotels under one management will result in greater economy and better accomodations to patrons without additional cost.
The first hotel acquired by the new company is the Grand, in the Catskill Mountains.
Work will immediately be started on a new hotel at Cooperstown, N. Y. at the foot of Otsego Lake. H. E. Eder of 248 Fifth avenue, will manage the chain of hotels.

HELD AS MADONIA'S SLAYER. STOPPED A RUNAWAY TRAIN. MURPHY HAS KINGS BEATEN

ctor flaw Engineer Knocked From WASHINGTON, N. J., April 25 .- J. J. Murray, conductor of an extra freight and coal train on the Lackawanna railroad, averted what might have been a serious wreck by quick action. Engineer Roscos Conklin of Scranton, on engine No. 872, while passing the water tank, was knocked out of the cab to the roadbed and stunned.

Conductor Murray saw him fall. He ran over the Mity-four cars to the engine and applied the airbrake. The fireman dld not know until the train stopped that they had been running without an engineer.

Conklin lay with his head within a few inches of the track. He was badly out about the head and shoulders, but no bones were

COL. CHURCHILL RESIGNS.

Displeased With Gov. Bachelder's Action on Bills, He Quite His Staff.

MANCHESTER, N. H., April 25.—Col. Winston Churchill stesigned his office as Colonel in the military family of Gov. Bachelder and it was at once accepted by the Governor. Mr. Churchill came to New Hampshire and bought much land in Cornish, on the banks of the Connecticut, where he established his summer home Last autumn he announced his candidacs for the Legislature and was elected. The people of New Hampstrire jumped to the conclusion that the author intended to adopt politics as a career and that his Legislative candidacy was a stepping stone to Congress. When Gov. Bichelder was inaugurated he appointed Mr. Churchill aide--camp with the rank of Colonel on his

The Governor and the author seemed to be on the best of terms. For a time the managers, who are behind the Governor, believed that Mr. Churchill had entered politics, as had other men of literary cult, simply for the social advantages and chance to expand his knowledge of men and to expand his knowledge of men and things.

Mr. Churchill disappoints it he leaders of legislation. He took off his coat for actual work. There were several bills in which he was particularly interested. Among them were the bill to free the Connecticut river toil bridges and the bill to appropriate money to provide for a New Hampshire exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition. He had been disappointed that a bill for good roads which had been framed by a sub-committee, of which he was chairman, and which had passed the Senate, had been displaced by another, temporizing in character.

In his remarks at a session of the House on the license bill, he referred to this change as ordered by the powers that be in some hitter language. The Governor vetoed the toil bridge bill, and that he had much direct influence in the slaughter of the St. Louis exhibit bill in the Senate, and in the substitute highway bill which displaced that of Mr. Churchill's sub-committee has been admitted.

There is little doubt among the members of the Legislature that the action of the Governor in relation to the legislative measures referred to, had really more to do with the departure of Mr. Churchill from the Governor's military family than the professional duties to which he makes special allusion in his letter. Further, the sarcastic references of Henry M. Putney, brother-in-law to Gov. Bachelder, in his paper to Col. Churchill and to the legislative measures in which he interested himself, it is held, have influenced Col. Churchill.

Announcement was made at Columbia University yesterday of the first awards of non-athletic insignia by King's Crown the undergraduate society, to students who have become prominent in college

Facsimiles of the old crown given King's College in 1754 by George III. of England were awarded to Roscoe Crosby Gaige of Nelson, N. Y., editor-in-chief of the Columbia Speciator; George A. K. Sutton of New York, editor-in-chief of the Morningside; Roi Cooper Megrue of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., editor-in-chief of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Normandie, N. J., editor-in-chief of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Normandie, N. J., editor-in-chief of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly; William P. S. Earle of Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly Roscommunication of the Columbia Literary Monthly Roscommunicatio P. S. Earle of Normandie, N. J., editor-inchief of the Columbia Jester; Arthur L. Strasser of New York, Arthur G. Hays of Rochester and Alexander A. Burnquist of Dayton, Ohio, members of the intercollegiate debating team which defeated Cornell; Frank H. Sewall of New York, Howard A. Keeler of New York, Frederick Barshell of New York and George W. Tucker, Jr., of Brooklyn, members of the Varsity chess team which won the intercollegiate championship from Harvard, Yale and Princeton last December.

Greek Play by University of Pennsylvania

Euripides's tragedy, "Iphigenia in Tauris" will be reproduced in the original Greek at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, on the 28th and 20th of this month.

The performance is to be given under the auspices of the Greek department the auspices of the Greek department of the University of Pennsylvania and an attempt will be made to follow out the original methods of Greek stage craft.

Preparations were begun a year ago, the principal parts, Iphigenia and Orestes, being at that time allotted to Mr. Frank V. Slack and Mr. William Orto Miller. The planning out of the scenery, costumes, music and choral dances began simultaneously, Musical phrases of unusual numbers of bars have been arranged so that the effect of the metres might not be lost.

Of the other parts, the Herdeman will be taken by Thomas E. Robins; Pylades, by Robert S. Moore; King Those, by Milton B. Stallman; the Messenger, by Robert Burns, and the Goddess Alhend, by George W. McClelland Fifteen undergraduates will represent the fifteen maiden attendants of Iphigenia who make up the chorus.

Gen. Baden Powell at West Point.

WEST POINT, April 25.—Gen. Baden Powell of the English Army visited the Military Academy to-day and met Major-Gen. Young, U. S. A. Gen. Young arrived Gen. Young, U. S. A. Gen. Young arrived last night and was received with full military honors. On. Gen. Powell's arriva he was met by Col. Mills and escorted to the Academy by a detachment of cavalry. A salute of thirteen guns was fired in his honor. Col. Mills and staff accompanied the visitor through the buildings and explained the routine of the Academy.

The cadets gave an exhibition ride in the riding hall, and the third class was put through the athletic exercises used to develop Uncle Sam's soldiers. The entire battalion passed in grand review on the plains before the visitors. Gens. Young and Powell walked around the entire corps and inspected them. Gen. Powell was enthusiastic over the drilling of the cadets.

"Twas Thomas Cahill Who Sat Dead on

Curb. The man whom boys stoned on Friday afternoon while he sat dead on a curbstone at Bedford avenue and South First street, at Bedford avenue and South First street, Williamsburg, was identified yesterday as Thomas Cahill. He was 60 years old and lived in lodging houses. It was said by the men who identified Cahill that he once owned real estate in the upper section of Williamsburg but lost all he had through bad speculation. An investigation of Cahill's death by Coroner's Physician Wuest showed that it was due to natural causes.

New $100,000 City House for Mrs. Satter-

Plans have been filed with the Building Bureau by McKim, Mead & White, architects, for a new six-story dwelling to be built for Mrs. Louisa P. Satterlee on the plot at 37 East Thirty-sixth street. It is to be 28 feet front and 83.9 feet deep with a façade of ornamental limestone will and sout $109,000.

SO SAY TAMMANY MEN, CIPHER-

ING ON NOMINATIONS. With Sullivan and Haffen Behind Him He Could Probably Control the City Convention No Matter What Alliances Melaughlin Effected Within the City. From time to time Democrats in and out of Tammany Hall get to speculating on whether Charles F. Murphy will be strong enough to nominate his own candidate for Mayor this fall. Some of them shake their heads and declare that Boss McLaughlin in Brooklyn may be able to checkmate him. Calculations made in cold figures show that if Murphy can control 86 per cent. of the delegates in Manhattan and The Bronz he can control the convention against Kings, Queens and Richmond in combination with the other 14 per cent.

in Tammany territory.

Early in June Tammany will appoint a conference committee to meet with similar conference committee to meet with similar committees from the other boroughs to decide on a unit of representation in the city convention of Greater New York. It is now practically certain that the convention will be organized on the basis of one delegate for every 500 votes or major fraction thereof cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor last fall. The big vote Leader Murphy brought out for Bird S. Coler will have the effect of increasing the Tammany strength in the city convention. Manhattan and The Bronx will have 356 votes out of the total of 654. The strength of each district and the identity of the leader is shown in the following table:

| able:                   | 100 GF 100, 24000 00  |
|-------------------------|---|
| ist. Leader, Delegates. | Dist. Leader. Delegates.22—P. J. Lantry   |
| 1-Daniel Pinn 6         | 22-P. J. Lantry   |
| -Toin Foley10           | 28-T. F. McAvoy 17  |
| And P Alexen            | 24-1. J. Dowling10  |
| 6-P. P. Martin          | 28-T. J. Dunn   |
| 0-T. P. Sullivan 17     | 27-J. J. Martin 5   |
| 7-P. H. Keahon10        | 26—G. F. Scameil. 626—T. J. Dunn 827—J. J. Martin 528—M. Featherson 19  |
| 8-F. J. Sullivan 5      | 20 J. F. Mulaueen 5   |
| O Harburger             | 29-J. F. Mulgueen $30-H. C. Hart   |
| 1-W. Dalton             | 22-1 J Framer M   |
| 2-P. J. Scully 7        | 38-N. J. Hayes  |
| 3-P. J. Dooling 8       | 34-John Havernon  |
| 4-J. T. Oakley 9        | and J. McGuire 23   |
| B. W. Plunkitt10        | 35-1. F. Haffen 30  |
| 7-D. F. McMahon 9       | 22-J. J. Frawley. 1433-N. J. Hayes. 1134-John Havernonand J. McGuire. 2335-L. P. Haffen. 30AnT. H. O'Neill. 5 |
| 8 -C. P. Murphy 15      | Total 3%  |
| 9-J. R. Sexton 10       | Total 3% Total of Kings 221 Total of Queens 33  |
| 0-T. Murphy11           | Total of Queens 33  |
| 1-M. F. Donohue17       | Total of Richmond 14  |

van, who was also made a sachem at that time, is the one man who could break Leader Murphy's solid front in the convention. His power, personal and by combinations from Fourteenth street to the Battery, put in his hands the balance of dictation. Without an outside combination, which the Tammany men say he cannot effect. Boss McLaughlin may be looked upon as overborne.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. MINIATORS ALMANAC-TRIS DAT. HIGH WATER-THIS DAY.

Arrived—SATURDAY, ADRII 25
SS ST Paul, Southampton, April 18.
SS California, Leghorn, April 18.
SS California, Leghorn, April 18.
SS Patavia, Hamburg, April 11.
SS Pretoria, Bermuda, April 24.
SS Saratoga, Cleafuegos, April 15.
SS Daggry, Progreso, April 17.
SS Geo. Farwell, Brunswick, April 21.
SS Sables, Galveston, April 18.
SS Princess Anne, Norfolk, April 24.
SS Dorothy, Tampa, April 18.
SS Maverick, Port Aribur, April 18.
Bark Chipperkyle, Salaverry, Dec. 20. Arrived-SATURDAY, April 25

Se Krosprins Wilhelm, from New York,

Salled FROM FORRION FORTS.

Sa Umbria, from Liverpool for New York.
Sa New York, from Southempton for New York.
Sa Noordam, from Rotterdam for New York.
Sa Cymric, from Queenatown for New York.
Si Krooniand, from Antwerp for New York.
Sa Kongin Luise, from Bremen for New York.
Sa La Savole, from Havre for New York.

OUTCOME STRANSEIPS.

| omingo 12 80 P M 800         | PM              |
|------------------------------|-----------------|
| on 300                       | PM Scri         |
| n 300                        | PM              |
| Oricans $00                 | PM   scrip      |
| folk # 500                   | PM of M         |
|                              | last            |
| COMING STRANSETPE            | som             |
| Due To-day.                  |                 |
| AlgiersAp                    |                 |
| GibraltarApi                 | 11 18   Mrs     |
| AlgiersApr                   | 4 . E. 1        |
| StettinAp                    | n a leon,       |
|                              |                 |
| Savannah An                  | 1 24   Mrs      |
| Havasa Api                   | HI SO I MALE    |
| JacksonvilleAp               | FII 29   CIECOS |
| GlasgowApt                   | ti is dand      |
|                              | 11 18   WES     |
| Due To-morrow.               | Min             |
| AntwerpApi                   | 11 18 Ger       |
| LiverpoolApi                 | 11 18   0-1     |
|                              | 11 21   UKU     |
| New Orleans Apr              | di 22   Mar     |
| San JuanApi                  | ril 22   Ger    |
|                              | 1 21   Gou      |
| NassauApi                    | Il 23 For       |
| ue Tuesday, April 28.        | 1 7             |
| LondonApr                    |                 |
| GalvestonApt                 |                 |
| Brunswick Apr                |                 |
| San Juan AprKingston Apr | Jam             |
| Havana Apr                   | Otis            |
| Wednesday, April 29.         | . Swa           |
| weanesday, April 20.         | 1               |
| LiverpoolApr                 | 18 66 25        |
|                              |                 |
| GenoaApr                     |                 |
| Naples Apr                   | 41 49 1         |
| GalvestonApr                 | i en   Mi       |
| Thursday And S               | ter o           |
|                              |                 |

Among those miling for Europe on Tuesday are Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Oagood Field. Mr. and Mrs. Jaines A. Bardes, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Van Alen are booked on the Celtic on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Van Alen will not return for the Newport season and will probably peas next winter in Europe. Mrs. Thomas Hitchcook and her son, Center Hitchcook, also sail on Wednesday. Miss Evelyn Van Wart, granddaughter of the late Marshall O. Roberte, who has been here for several months, will sail on Wednesday.

Miss Anna Constable will soon start to Miss Anna Constable will soon start to pay a series of visits to various friends, and will pass the summer in this way. She and her brother will give up their studio and dwelling at 22 East Sixteenth street this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drezel were in Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drezel were in Rome at last accounts. They will return for the late Newport season and will probably occupy their new house at I East Sixty-second street next winter. There are some new features in the house, including an infirmary for domestics on the upper floor, where the rooms for the twelve maids are. The dining room is to be lined with Gobelin tapestries framed with white marble Corinthian pilasters. Pale gray and white are the colors of the drawing rooms, and the ball room will be in ivory and gold. SPANISH ARCH

Henry Ingersoll Riker gave his bachelor Henry Ingersoll Riker gave his bachelor dinner last night at Delmonico's, when his guests included the Messrs. Herbert L. Riker, Charles Lawrence Riker, Edward Ditmars. Alfred Swayne, John Riker, Daniel S. Riker, Rufus R. Graves, Samuel T. Gilford and Dr. J. R. Whiting, who will attend him at his wedding on Wednesday, with his cousin, Miss May Jackson Riker. The bride-elect also entertained at dinner at her home, 19 West Fifty-seventh street, her attendants and a number of other friends.

A large number of cards have been issued A large number of cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ridge Quinby for the wedding of their daughter. Miss Grace Ridge Quinby and Lester Wallace, to take place next Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in St. James's Protestant Episcopal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Quinby will give a reception afterward from 5 to 7 o'clock, at their home, 317 West Seventy-airth street.

Mrs. Edward J. Tytus and her son, Robert de Peyster Tytus, reached here during the week on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. The marriage of Mr. Tytus, who is in business in Egypt, and Miss Grace Henop, will take place on May 19 in Grace Church. Before sailing for Egypt they will pass a month in the Adirondacks.

One of the big church weddings of the week will be that of Miss Marion Hopkinson Smith and Heron C. Goodhart, to take place at 3 o'clock next Thursday afternoon in the Church of the Incarnation. Bishop Doane of Albany, assisted by the Rev. William M. Grosvenor, will perform the ceremony, and the bride will be given away by her father, F. Hopkinson Smith, with whom she will walk up the aisle. Miss Vera Goodhart of London, England, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss J. Therese Keyser of this city will be bridesmaids. The Messrs. William Van Deventer Moore and Thomas S. Moore, cousins of the bride, and J. K. Mitchell, 3d., of Philadelphia, will be ushers. The reception afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, 150 East Thirty-fourth street, will be for relatives and intimate friends only. One of the big church weddings of the Miss Alice Beardsley Smith and Edward Kirkland will be married at the Church Kirkland will be married at the Church of the Ascension on Thursday. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Elwood Smith, as maid of honor. Hyde Smith, a brother, will escort her to the altar and will give her away. Frederick C. Ingalls of Utica will be the best man, and Charles P. Kirkland, Isaac John Greenwood, Gordon Knox Bell, Joseph Lovy, G. Philip Simmons and James M. Charles will be ushers. Afterward there will be a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Laura Hyde Smith, 78 West Eighty-second street.

A number of New Yorkers now in London A number of New Forkers now in London have received invitations to attend Mrs. Adair's fancy dress ball to be given on Friday night, May 8, at her house in Curzon street. Mrs. Adair will have no difficulty as to a cetilion leader, as both her son, J. Wadsworth Ritchie, and her nephew. Craig W. Wadsworth, Third Secretary of the Embassy in London, are experts in this line.

Miss Ella Guthrie and Eugene Sands Miss Ella Guthrie and Eugene Sands Willard will be married to-morrow afternoon in the Church of the Incarnation. The bride brought her gown over from Paris. She will be attended by Miss Mary Seney Sheldon, one of the winter's debutantes, as maid of honor, and the Misses Natalie Wells, Marion Fish, Edna Loew and Jeannette Myers of Hempstead, L. I., will be bridesmaids. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, Henry O. Havemeyer, Jr., I. Townsend Burden, Jr., Edward Hubert Littchfield, Le Baron Sands Willard and William Fuller will act as ushers, and E. Augustus Willard, Jr., will be the best man.

Wedding rehearsals have become special Wedding rehearals have become special ante-nuptial festivities in line with bachelor dinners and bridesmaids' luncheons. Tomorrow night Miss Julia Floyd Physe and Norman Hullick Parke of Scranton, Pa., will have their rehearsal in the West End Collegiate Church and it is to be a full-dress affair. Afterward Miss Physe will entertain the bridal party at her home, 246 West Seventy-third street. There will be a full complement of attendants at the rehearsal, as well as at the actual wedding on Tuesday, as there are seventeen bridesmaids and ushers as well as the maid of honor and best man.

Mrs. James Freeman Brown of Wellesley, Mass., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Josephine Gould, to Mr. Hobart Dominick Betts of Englewood, N. J.

A pretty home wedding of the week will be that of Miss Grace Elise Fairchild and Henry Weil Buller. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Szmue' W. Fairchild, 65 East Forty-sixth street, on Saturday afternoon. The bride will be attended by her sisters, Misses Edith E. and Constance Fairchild, and Miss Florence Mills.

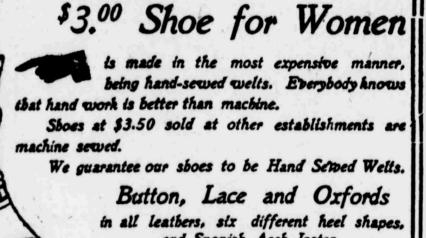

Cards will be sent out this week for the weedding of Miss Josephine Atterbury and Eliphalet Nott Potter, to take place in St.
Thomas's Church, on Wednesday, May 20.
The bride-elect will be the first of last winter's débutantes to be married.
She and her sister, Miss Mary Barton Atterbury, were introduced at the same time.
There will be a reception after the church ceremony at her father's residence, 13 West Forty-ninth street.

The Easter dance of the Saturday subription series, under the management Mrs. Charles R. Huntington, was given st night at Delmonico's. The patronesses, me of whom received, are Mrs. John arkson Jay, Mrs. William W. Hoppin, rs. John Erving, Mrs. Edward King, Mrs.
Morgan Grinnell, Mrs. James J. Higginn, Mrs. James Gore King, Mrs. Henry Morris, Mrs. Sackett Moore Barclay and
rs. F. Livingston Pell. Round and square noes preceded the cotillon, which was need at 10 o'clock, and afterward supper as served. Among the dancers were asses Marie Adele Montant, Alice Vernam, rtrude Pell, Adelaide Barclay, Mary rden, Alico Agnew, Helen T. Brown, argeret Gardiner, Matilds B. Emory, rtrude Greene, Frances Janeway, Hester uverneur Hone, Anna Low, Ethel De rest, Cornelia Du Bois Floyd, Josephine posby, the Mesars. Oswald Garrison Vild, F. Gordon Brown, Jr.; W. M. Dongan Peyster, John A. Gade, Morris Parker, mes Duane Pell, H. A. Stickney, James s Post, F. Gordon Brown, Jr.; Robert an. Richard H. Carleton, Benjamin Adams, Paul Prentice, William E. Curtis, rence P. Wyckoff, Henry S. Leverich, rke Voorhees. he Easter dance of the Saturday sub-

Miss Margaret Whitney Marston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marston, of 168 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, will be married next Wednesday evening, to Mr. Samuel Hazard Gillespie of Squadron A. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents.

CAMMEYER

The Best Way to Make Shoes Is the Most Expensive Way. Our "Standard"

Button, Lace and Oxfords

in all leathers, six different heel shapes, and Spanish Arch Instep. Catalogue Mailed Free on Application.

6TH AVE., COR. 20TH ST.

Horner's Furniture

TNEQUALLED CHOICE in all lines of Furniture whether wanted for town or country nomes, combined with unequalled values, are the attractions presented by our stock.

Lines for Summer Furnishing

White Enamelled Bedrorm Suites, plain and deccrated—Bedroom Suites in bird's-eye maple, birch, oak and mahogany—Braus Bedsteads in exclusive patterns; all sizes—Enamelled Iron Bedsteads with brass trimmings—Dining Room Suites in all the fashionable designs and finishes—Select examples of Flamish, Old English, Missica Weathered and Green Oak Furniture; also full line of Venetian Carved Furniture ALL AT ATTRACTIVE PRICES.

Wide Range of Choice in Articles fo WEDDING PRESENTS Combining Utility with Beauty.

R. J. HORNER & CO., Furriture Makers and Important 61, 63, 65 West 23d Street

AT WAR OVER A BILLBOARD

COURT ASKED TO ENJOIN THE THEATRICAL PASTERS

And Give Van Beuren & Co. the Se the to Ornament the Mgnbe on the Roof of McGuire's One-Story Broadway Building—No Bloodshed Yet The Sunteme Court has been called upon to determine who shall and who shall not stick advertising posters on a board fence tweny-five feet long and ten feet high that is erected on the roof of a one-story building at 1628 Broadway, in Long Acre Square. Since St. Patrick's day the fence has been the scene of much vigorous warfare beside claiming the bill-posting right could cover the fence the bill-posting general-issimo of the other army would swoop down and cover his rival's pictures.

The bulletin board and the building over which it stands belong to John McGuire, and he is a co-defendant with Sam Shubert, the theatrical manager, and Sol Manheimer, his advertising agent, in an action begun by A. Van Beuren & Co., the bill-posting firm, for an injunction to prevent Shubert and Manheimer from posting bills on the board in question and to compel the specific performance by McGuire of a contract made with him on March 17, 1902.

A. S. Gilbert, as Van Beuren's attorney appeared yesterday before Supreme Court Justice MacLean to ask for a temporary injunction. Gilbert told the Court that unless the injunction were granted there would be serious breaches of the peace unless the injunction were granted there would be serious breaches of the peace between the rival posters, with possible injury to both sides.

Van Beuren & Co. say that on March 17, 1802, McGuire leased to them for one year the privilege of erecting the bulletin board, with an agreement of renewal on the expiration of the lease. The consideration was $50, and a contract to this effect was signed by both parties.

When last St. Patrick's day came a check for $25 for another half year's rent was sent to McGuire. Van Beuren & Co. got the check back and an intimation from McGuire that he could make more than $50 cut of the billboard.

A week ago Manheimer sent his men to bill "There and Back" on the board, and when they were through no sign of Van Beuren's gorgeous display could be seen.

A few hours later Van Beuren's men obliterated Manheimer's bills, but during the night the latter recovered his lost ground and left a detachment of one bill poster in charge. This individual defended the fort so vallantly that Van Beuren's men before the attack.

William Klein, counsel for the defendants, showed to Juetice MacLean affidavits from Shubert, Manheimer and McGuire in which the statements of the other side were vigorously denied. McGuire swears that he never signed a contract, one reason being that he can neither read nor write. To prove this he made his mark on his affidavit.

Justice MacLean reserved decision on the application.

obliterated Manheimer's bills, but during the night the latter recovered his lost ground and left a detachment of one hill poster in charge. This individual defended the fort has or aliantly that Van Beuren's manager, in, showed to Jurtice MacLean affidavits from Shubert, Manheimer and McGuire in which the statements of the other side were vigorously denied. McGuire swears that he earn either read nor write. To prove this he made his mark on his affidavit. Justice MacLean reserved decision on the application.

The New York City Woman's Aid to the George Junior Republic, instead of giving the usual entertainment for the recublic this year, appeals directly for money toward securing a guarantee fund of $10,000 a year for five years. Half of this sum is already pledged. Gifts of the sum is the George Junior Republic, Free-prepaid. Miss E. H. White, 210 West with the conduction of the plant the root of the plant the root where his mother was mending his trousers, and out of the windew and up the fire-eacape to the roof. The officer heard the crite to the deep the patrons are Mrs. Charles S. Fairchild, precident; Mrs. E. Henry Burden, Mrs. Levi P. Morton and Miss Van Bantvoord.

BEST&6

Girls' Spring Hats.

This attractive showing embraces a selected variety of all the most becoming styles of the season.

Girls' Dress Hats.

Girls' School Hats.

Girls' Country and Outing Hats. Extremely smart models and novel effects in abundant evidence. Especial daintiness of material and trimmings are more conspicuous than ever in the displays of "dress" headwear, durability in school hats, and extreme lightness, and general serviceability predominate in the "Country" and "Outing" styles.

Effects to suit all ages; prices to meet all ideas.

60-62 West 23d Street.

Shirt Waist Department.

Monday, April 27th. Wash Shirt Waists. in Lawn Madras and Cheviot, at $1.25. value $1.75. -Also--

Fancy Figured Oxford and Striped, or Figured Mercerized Madras, at Lord & Taylor.

GIRL AN EXPERT PICKPOCKET.

ONLY 12 YEARS OLD, BUT GETS MUCH PLUNDER IN THEATRES.

Mother Despairs of Referming Her or Her Brother, Walter, a Year Older, Who Flees Over Roofs, Lightly Clad, to Ecoape Society Agent With Warrant. Walter Eckhardt, 13 years old, of 285

Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, yesterday morning, gave Officer Quigley of the Adams street court a lively chase up a fire cacepe to the roof, where the lad, clad only in his drawers and jacket, managed to clude his pursuer. The officer had warrants for the arrest of Walter and his sister, Elsie, 12 years old, both charged by their mother with being incorrigible.

Elsie and Walter are said to be adept

TWO GIRLS LAY CORNERSTONE

Make Speeches and Break Champagne Bettle Over It-They're 7 and 8 Years Old. PASSATO, April 25.-Two little girls laid the cornerstone of a four-story building in this city this afternoon. The building is being erected by John De Vries and he asked his daughters, Ada and Phelma, aged 7 and 8 respectively, to lay the stone. A large crowd witnessed the ceremony. The girls delivered addresses and after the stone had been set in place broke a bottle of champagne over it amid the cheers of the spectators. New Roosevelt Hospital Building. Plans have been filed with the Building Figure 1 and 1 and seven' for Grip and Colds, now try Dr. Humphreys' Specifics for the Kidneys and Bladder-enables you to pass for life insurance; for Dyspepsia—restores sunny disposition; for Rheumatism—dispels the bane of life; for the Skin—improves the

At Druggists, 25 cents each, or mailed Doctor's Book mailed free. Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. Wm. & John Ste., N. T

